PROCEEDINGS.

FIRST DAY—MORNING SESSION.

The eleventh annual Convention of The Pentecostal Holiness Church of North Carolina, met in the Holiness Tabernacle at Kinston, on Tuesday morning, November 22nd, 1910, at 10:00 o'clock.

Convention was called to order by the President, Rev. A. H. Butler.

The roll of preachers was called and the following answered to their names: A. H. Butler, A. G. Canada, S. C. Hodges, R. B. Jackson, H. C. King, H. R. Martin, O. J. Owens, H. E. Oxendine, M. A. Paramour, C. B. Strickland, G. F. Taylor, W. H. Wellons and J. B. Williams.

The roll of churches was called and the following answered as delegates:

St. John—J. H. Capps.
Canaan—O. J. Owens.
Avera's Grove—H. C. King.
Dunn—R. J. Wheeler.
Falcon—J. A. Culbreth.
Fayetteville—E. D. Britt.
Goldsboro—W. T. Brafford.
Goshen—J. A. Marshburn.
Hillsboro—A. G. Canada.
Hodge's Chapel—M. S. Paramour.
Kinston—J. W. Daly.
Mayodan—H. R. Martin.
St. Paul—J. B. Williams.
St. Stephens—J. M. Stephens.

On motion, the following officers of the Convention were elected for the ensuing year: Rev. A. H. Butler, President; Rev. G. F. Taylor, Vice-President, and J. A. Culbreth, Secretary.

By motion of G. F. Taylor, the President of the Convention was appointed Chairman also of the Committee on Devotional Exercises, and R. W. Grantham and James Stephens were elected to complete the committee.

Other committees were duly elected as follows:

On examination of applicants for ordination—A. G. Canada, R. B. Jackson and G. F. Taylor.

On Missions, both Home and Foreign—H. R. Martin, C. B. Strickland and S. C. Hodges.

On Division of Labor—A. H. Butler, C. B. Strickland and H. R. Martin.

The order of services for the Convention was next discussed, and it was decided that the usual eleven o'clock preaching be dispensed with, and that the entire time of both sessions, each day, be given to the transaction of business.

The hours for each session were set as follows: Morning Sessions, from 8:30 a. m. to 12:00 m. Afternoon sessions from 2:00 p. m., to 5:00 p. m., with devotional services each evening at 7:00 p. m.

Reports from churches were received as follows: Antioch, St. John, Canaan, Avera's Grove, Goldsboro, Goshen, Hodges' Chapel, Kinston, Mayodan and Shelmerdine.

By motion, it was ordered that Richlands church be dropped from this Convention list, as it had united with a Freewill Baptist Conference.

At this juncture, Bro. R. B. Jackson gave a most encouraging talk, urging everybody to stand true and faithful to God and His truth, and moved the adjournment of the morning session.

Benediction by Rev. A. G. Canada.

FIRST DAY—AFTERNOON SESSION.

Convention opened as appointed by singing No. 72 in "Bread of Life Songs" followed with prayer by Rev. R. B. Jackson.

Minutes of the morning session were read and approved.

The hearing of reports from the churches was again taken up and the following reported: Falcon, St. Paul, Hillsboro, St. Stephens, Dunn, Fayetteville and Parmele.

The roll of preachers, for the examination of character, was called and the following responded or were represented and their characters passed: A. H. Butler, A. G. Canada, W. P. Cox, F. A. Dail, J. C. Daniel, S. C. Hodges, P. L. Hood, R. B. Jackson, H. C. King, T. M. Lee, H. R. Martin, Berta Maxwell, T. J. McIntosh, O. J. Owens, H. E. Oxendine, M. S. Paramour, W. M. Pope, T. J. Smith, J. R. Spence, M. J. Sterling, C. B. Strickland, G. F. Taylor, W. H. Wellons and J. B. Williams.

Upon motions duly made and voted upon, the following preachers were ~~dropped~~ from our list of membership: G. B. Cashwell, G. H. King, H. H. Merritt and J. D. Wiggins.

By motion and vote, the Convention adjourned to meet again Wednesday morning, at 8:30 o'clock.

SECOND DAY—MORNING SESSION.

Convention met and opened by singing No. 81 in "Bread of Life Songs". Prayer by A. T. Herring.

Roll call of preachers was again taken up and W. M. Pope answered to his name as a new arrival.

Roll of churches continued and the following delegates reported their churches as follows:

Antioch—N. B. Strickland.
 Mount Carmel—C. W. Bass.
 Sharon—A. T. Herring.
 St. Matthew's—John M. Weeks.

Upon motion duly passed, Rev. J. D. Wiggins was permitted to make explanation to the Convention concerning the charges upon which he was dismissed from the Convention.

Having received some written reports by mail from Bethany, Cumbe Chapel, Oak Grove and Bethlehem. These were read and Brothers Talton and Rhodes made statements concerning the church at Princeton, and Sisters Waters and Huggins spoke concerning the church at LaGrange, and Bros. H. C. King and W. M. Pope relative to Fuquay Springs.

Magnolia, McCall, Charlotte, Ebenezer, Manly, Mount Tabor, Raeford, Rhodes Chapel and Raleigh were spoken of by different ones and were recognized as still being stations for work.

By motion, the following churches were dropped from the Convention: Howard's Chapel, Jamestown, Rockingham, Stoney Point.

On motion, the name of D. Mimms was dropped from the list of preachers.

The names of J. J. King, J. H. Sutton and J. F. Ramsey were called, and upon reports of different members of the Convention, their characters were passed.

The committee, appointed by last Convention to investigate the disposition of the money derived from the sale of the Goldsboro Tabernacle, made their report, which being unsatisfactory, necessitated the appointment of another committee.

By motion, the following committee of Investigation was appointed: A. H. Butler, G. F. Taylor and J. A. Culbreth.

Convention adjourned to meet again at 2:00 o'clock.

Benediction by Rev. W. H. Wellons.

SECOND DAY—AFTERNOON SESSION.

Convention opened by singing, "Jesus the light of the world," followed with prayer by Bro. James Noble.

By motion duly passed, it was ordered that in church reports to the Convention hereafter, the number receiving the pentecostal baptism of the Spirit, should be reported the same as the conversions and sanctifications.

Rev. G. F. Taylor made motion, which was seconded by Rev. H. E. Oxendine, that The Pentecostal Holiness Church of North Carolina consolidate with The Fire Baptized Holiness Church, upon the basis of union as agreed to by the joint committee of the two churches which met at Falcon, N. C., in April, 1910.

A rising vote of the Convention was taken upon this motion, with the result that the Convention voted unanimously for the consolidation.

A motion was then passed which ordered that one committeeman be elected from this Convention to meet with one committeeman from The Fire Baptized Holiness Church, and that these two commotion on consolidation

mitteemen select a third man from either church to assist them, and these three are to meet at an appointed time and place and write out a discipline, under which the two churches may consolidate.

By motion duly made, Rev. G. F. Taylor was elected as the discipline committeeman from this Convention.

Report of the Committee on Missions was read as follows and was adopted.

REPORT ON MISSIONS.

We, the Committee on Missions, beg to submit the following report: We recommend that each Pastor organize a Missionary Society in each of his churches, and insist that his members join the same for the promotion of mission work both at home and abroad.

We recommend further that this Convention appoint a Mission Board, who shall use the money sent in from the various Societies according to the directions of said Societies either for Home or Foreign work.

Respectfully submitted,

C. B. STRICKLAND,

H. R. MARTIN,

R. W. GRANTHAM,

Committee.

A Mission Board, for the ensuing year, was elected as follows: A. H. Butler, C. B. Strickland and J. A. Culbreth.

By motion it was ordered that the money on hand, obtained from the sale of disciplines above expenses for printing, be equally divided between the churches at Duke and Kinston.

An offering was taken for the church at Duke, in which $20.22 was contributed.

By motion, it was ordered that all the money obtained from future sales of disciplines now on hand, be given to apply on the indebtedness of Kinston Church.

A motion was passed which ordered, that hereafter, each church take collection for the Minute fund and send to Convention by its delegate, an amount not less than one dollar for each church.

The following new churches were admitted into the Convention: Gastonia, Mount Hebron and Spray.

Convention adjourned to meet again Thursday morning at 8:30 o'clock. Benediction by C. B. Strickland.

THIRD DAY—MORNING SESSION.

Opening song, No. 1 in "Bread of Life Songs."

Prayer by Rev. H. R. Martin.

Minutes of last session read and approved.

At this time Rev. J. D. Wiggins was permitted to speak for himself as to whether or not he would accept the discipline of the church and he refused to endorse that part of the discipline forbidding fellowship with any person engaged in those things referred to in Article X of our government.

Thunder Swamp Church was reported by Sister Georgia Andrews, the delegate, and Bro. F. A. Dail also spoke of conditions there.

Upon motion, it was ordered that Rev. A. G. Canada visit Thunder Swamp Church and hold a meeting and explain the new discipline and take a vote of the church upon the matter of accepting the same.

An offering was taken upon the indebtedness of Kinston Tabernacle and there was given in cash and pledges One hundred, forty three and 20-100 dollars.

A Bible having been presented in the collection, on the indebtedness of the church, there was a motion made to take a collection to pay for the Bible, the same to be presented to little James Watson Butler as a gift from the Convention, and the same was done. $ 2.00 (His first Bible)

Bro. H. C. King, having felt called of God as a missionary to Africa, was requested to speak concerning his call and the leadings of the Spirit in that direction.

After Brother King's statement, the Holy Ghost set His seal of approval upon it in a miraculous way through the interpretation of tongues, giving messages of encouragement and comfort, which were unmistakable in their assurances.

By motion, Bro. King was acknowledged as a worthy missionary and the Convention pledged him its support.

A collection was taken for missions and there was contributed $16.55.

A good and touching talk was given by Bro. R. B. Jackson in the interest of The Falcon Orphanage and a collection was taken amounting to $25.71.

Motion having passed, the Convention adjourned to meet again at 2:00 o'clock.

Benediction by Rev. A. H. Butler.

THIRD DAY—AFTERNOON SESSION.

Convention opened by singing "On the Sunny side", followed by prayer by Rev. C. B. Strickland.

A motion was made and passed ordering that the missionary offering of the morning session be given to Bro. H. C. King.

By motion, J. A. Culbreth was requested to speak in the interest of "The Apostolic Evangel," after which Revs. R. B. Jackson and A. H. Butler also made talks encouraging a wider circulation of the paper.

The committee on Ordination expressed their readiness to report, and Bro. G. F. Taylor of that committee made explanation concerning the application of Bro. N. B. Strickland, and after some discussion of his case, it was ordered, by motion duly passed, that his ordination be deferred until the next Convention.

The following preachers were recommended for ordination, and by motion passed, were duly received: F. W. Gammon, A. B. Causey, C. W. Martin, W. J. Noble, C. F. Noble and P. F. Robinson.

The ordaining committee recommended to the newly received preachers, the purchasing and reading of some good books on the second coming of Jesus.
